

AUTHORS INSTRUCTIONS

JNBR is published online only, in one annual volume with main aim to provide quick publication of a brief account of relevant research on new records in the field of biology. Manuscripts should be written concisely and clearly in scientific/technical English.

It should be made clear what constitutes a new record. In case of disease reports, proof of pathogenicity to evidence the association of symptoms with an infectious agent will be required.

Deposition of sequences with publicly accessible databases is preferred. Accession numbers for primary nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence data should be included in the original manuscript or be inserted at the time the manuscript is last revised. The accession number should be included at the end of the paper.

Preparation of manuscripts

JNBR Publishes the short reports on new biological reports. Therefore all manuscripts should be brief and prepared strictly in following format.

Title Page

The first page (title page) should contain a concise and informative title of the paper, the name(s) -full name(s) and surname(s) - of the author(s), and the address (es) of the author(s) with affiliation(s), e-mail address, telephone and fax numbers.

Abstract

Please provide an abstract of 150 to 250 words with 4 to 6 keywords which can be used for indexing purposes.

Text Formatting

Manuscripts should be submitted in single Word docx format (Word 2007 or higher) or doc format (older Word versions). Use a normal, plain font (e.g., 12-point Times Roman), double spaced throughout for text and italics for emphasis. Tab, not the space bar command should be used for indents. All pages and lines should be numbered.

Acknowledgments

Acknowledgments of people, grants, funds, etc. should be placed in a separate section before the reference list. The names of funding organizations should be written in full.

References

The list of references should only include works that are cited in the text and that have been published or accepted for publication. References in the text should be cited by author-date system. Single author: Avasthi (2009) or (Avasthi 2009), two authors: Avasthi & Gautam (2011) or (Avasthi & Gautam 2011), more than two authors: Avasthi et al. (2011) or (Avasthi et al. 2011). Several references by the same author/s published in the same year: Avasthi (2010a, b) or (Avasthi 2010a, b). Always use the standard abbreviation of a journal's name according to the ISSN List of Title Word Abbreviations.
